

OAR Review Process

- OAR identifies CTCs to be reviewed for the upcoming academic year
- OAR Chair sends questionnaire/rubric to institution to be reviewed
- Reviewed institution returns rubric to OAR Chair (approximately 1 month after institution received the rubric)
- OAR Chair shares complete rubric with OAR members to review
- OAR meets with institution to review rubric, provide comments (approximately 1 month after OAR members receive the completed rubric)
- OAR Chair completes final report with comments and recommended changes and OAR members are provided the draft report for review.
- Comments from the OAR committee are incorporated and the final report is completed and reported to the ICRC Executive Committee and the Chief Academic Officers of the institutions involved, with a copy to the Intercollege Relations Commission representative. The institution is encouraged to respond to the Chair of the Executive Committee regarding the report of the OAR Committee.
